ALL THE NEWS IN WORLD OF SPORTS

RIVALS ARE BEATEN

Georgetown Downs Virginia in Basket-ball Game.

FINAL CONTEST OF THE SEASON

Southerners Outclassed by Hilltoppers in Odd Fellows' Hall-Score Is Off Clever Stunts-Battle Is Hotly form and did more real the more experienced players. Contested-Many Fouls Called.

It was a great game-for Georgetow In a contest that marked the closing the 1909 basket-ball season for the Bl and Gray last evening, the "old liables" were successful in defeating University of Virginia 36 to 19.

It was a hard fought battle, and boys of old Virginia endeavored to aco themselves creditably, but they found t sinew and grit of Georgetown too much tor them, and were compelled to lay down their arms. WASHINGTON "PEDS" DO WELL

From the very beginning the struggle belonged to the locals, and they did not let up once during the game, but Although they were compelled to play without James Colliflower, one of their star men, this did not in any way prove match confident they would win. They played as only the boys of Georgetown can play, and they were enthusiastically cheered on by their friends.

Downey Makes Clever Goal,

To add excitement to the first part of the game, Downey threw a basket from the center of the floor, which brought forth a yell from the spectators.

delayed for a few moments, caused by ton, takes exception to this, George Cauliflower being thrown to the On a mere pleasure tramp up the towsignaled that the game was on once hours. more. The local team showed a great deal of scientific work, and proved themselves too swift for the Virginians. Despite the efforts of the visiting team, it was like bucking a stone wall to get the Georgetown defense. The Cover the distance to Knoxville, just this the easy-going natives. Once in a while clear in the particular places they fill, they are generally selected because of their ability to play ball.

As a rule, the Panamans do not like baseball. It is entirely too energetic for the easy-going natives. Once in a while cloni and Prof. Messineo. boys of Virginia did not give up courage, side of Harpers Ferry. time was called in the first half the fig-

In the first period Rice and Schlosser

The game was one of the best seen in this city this season, and there was no country walk in Maryland, three other complaint at the close as to unfair judg-members of the Hamline Walking Club

Prof. Joyce refused to allow him lost but three-one to Cornell, another to Columbia, and a third to the Y. M. C. A. But as the latter was not against a college, it cannot be counted against them.

Georgetown-36. Positions.right forward ... Goals from floor-Rice (4), G. Colliflower (4), Downey (2), Cockrane (3), Schlosser (4), May (3), Cecil (2), Coggins (2). Goals from fouls—Rice (4), May (2). Referees—Mr. Moriarity and Prof. Joyce.

day in the final round of the indoor na-However, he did not win from Theodore three hard-fought sets. Pell thus has his name on the trophy for the second time since it was put up. Hoagland Can Walk Some.

Auburn, N. Y., Feb. 27 .- Willard Hoagland, champion walker of the world, to-11/2 hours a night. Hoagland covered 65

GAME ENDS IN TIE.

Spartans and Armstrongs in Hot Unusual interest was displayed over th basket-ball game last night at True Reormers' Hall between the Spartans and the Armstrong fast team, which resulted in a tie game, both sides scoring 6 points. These two teams maintain great rivalry and a great game is always assured whenever they meet.

In the first half the playing of Dandidge and Walker, for Armstrong, and of Richardson, Penn, and Clifford, for he Spartans, was spectacular throughout. The preliminary game was equally as interesting as the star game of the even-36 to 19-Rice and Colliflower Pull ing, since the youngsters showed better form and did more real team work than

- 4	The line-up:
	Spartans.
1	Richardson
å	Penny	center	Beckw	12
	Curtis	right guard		k
	Robinson	left guard	Anden	80
	Midgets.	Positions.	Tech	8,
	Moody	right forward	C. Hender	sö
	Crawford	left forward		ķ
	Hayes
	Nutter	right guard	Da	t T
	Layton Score-Spartans,	left gnard. 6; Armstrong	. 6. Midgets,	II.
	Techs, 12. Refer pressed their rivals hard to the finish. Hamline Walking Club Members Establish Records.

The Georgetown team went into the Taylor, Adams, and Swingle Cover Fifty-eight Miles in Less Than Seventeen Hours,

The three Princeton athletes who recently walked fifty-six miles in nineteen hours, as described in a story in the New wish to remain in the game. Deportation Friends School was held last night. York Herald, were given the title of fense. record holders for distance walking, but After this excitement the game was the Hamline Walking Club, of Washing-floor, receiving an injury. It looked as path of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal too, the players often indulge in intellithough the Georgetown team would be three of the members of the Hamline gent inside baseball, and in this line they weakened during the remainder of the Club, Ernest R. Taylor, William Adams, are aided by the experience of profesgame, but the star refused to quit, and and Ernest A. Swingle, last Saturday sionals who are now holding situations in a few moments the referee's whistle covered fifty-eight miles in seventeen while May and Cecil excelled for the were taken every hour. Altogether, more that the rivalry is not alone among the Zea came out first with ten points and visiting team. Cockrane was responsible than three hours were wasted along the players, but the fanatics in each town the Virginia team, and though he was knocked than three hours were wasted along the players, but the fanatics in each town the Virginia team, and though he was knocked than three hours were wasted along the players, but the fanatics in each town the Virginia team, and though he was knocked than three hours were wasted along the players, but the fanatics in each town the Virginia team, and though he was knocked than three hours were wasted along the players, but the fanatics in each town the Virginia team, and though he was knocked town the Virginia team, and though he was knocked to the virginia team, and th were used in the second half and the timekeepers were changed.

Schlosser, Coggins, and Colliflower did noble work in this half, and Rice threw several baskets from the center of the floor, while May and Cockrane repeated floor, while May and Cockrane repeated floor, while May and Cockrane repeated floor in fast walking by the floor of the selection of the second of admirers, which included among the number many of the women folk.

Not only the young women were furiously loyal, but the mothers of children old enough to marry were consistent attendants at the games and eagerly attendants at the games attendants

Although James Colliflower was injured some of its members covered twentyin the game with Cornell the night before, he was anxious to play last night, but minutes. On a walk (not a speed test) the distance between here and Rockville (six-The game last night closed a successful teen miles) was covered by four of the season for the local boys. Out of twenty- members in three hours. These records three games played this season, they have would seem to put to shame the Prince-

GOSSIP OF THE BOXERS.

Young Donahue and Kid Farmer have will be with Al Delmont at the Armory Wood, is the secretary-treasurer. R. Pell, who carried off the honors after twelve rounds at 122 pounds. Napoleon Dufresne is matched with Patsy Kline, of New York, at North Adams, Mass., for March 4. Later in the month he will meet Tommy Rawsonthere. March 9 he is scheduled to fight populace. in Montreal.

Willie Fitzgerald soliloquizes as folnight retained his title at the finish of the four-day heel-and-toe walking match, pulled away, and I wonder if I can get a chance to shake hands with Mickey Gannon inside of Mr. McGuigan's ring. My Isthmian League Flourishes Under Yankee Occupation.

STRENUOUS FOR THE UMPIRE

Col. Goethals Is President of Organization, E. H. Rousseau Vice Presi-Root for Home Team-Season Starts in December-Play Sunday Games.

Special to The Washington Herald.

States, and his likes and dislikes are manifested at every game. More to the point as to American reality at a ball game, the umpire is not only assailed in oral fashion, but he has had to show science with his fists upon several occasions to protect himself from the assaults of the players. All intensely American. Only a few weeks ago the arbiter or the diamend in a game at Ancon was Friends School Indoor Meet Is Big twice mixed up in a scrap with the players, but he finished the game, while offending players sat on the bench, one of whom was ejected from the ground. The umpire was somewhat disfigured, however, and showed great coolness under a severe trial. Since this last unpleasantness the league has adopted stringent and positive rules, which practically put a pre-mium upon clean ball, and the unruly players must not ran out of line if they

As a rule, the ball tossers are charput a lot of ginger into their work. Then, under the canal commission and playing ball on the side. While they are profi-through the Georgetown defense. The cover the distance to Knoxville, just this the easy-going natives. Once in a while eloni and Prof: Messineo. a few Panamans will get out to see and they fought like tigers to run their During this time thirty-three photoscore up, but with little result. When graphs were taken of scenery along the game and apparently have not time to the game and apparently have not time.

ginia team, and though he was knocked out completely by a stiff blow in the chest, he rallied and rushed gamely into the fight.

Virginia Braces Up.

In the second half the Virginians ral
The last eight miles were covered at a storm. The last eight miles were covered at a rate of four miles an hour in a storm. The walkers were drenched to the skin, but kept on, intending to make Harpers Visiting team become demonstrative in an oral way the din of retaliation reaches in volume the noise of dynamite extraction. Intermediate har scap—Won by Rogers, second, warlous noisy instruments are in vogue to more forcibly acclaim loyalty to the bome team, and when the friends of the visiting team become demonstrative in an oral way the din of retaliation reaches in volume the noise of dynamite extraction.

Intermediate har scap—Won by Rogers, second, warlous noisy instruments are in vogue to more forcibly acclaim loyalty to the bome team, and when the friends of the stimute in the scan head of the scan head complaint at the close as to unfair judging, although the contest was rough at times and numerous fouls were called on and forty-five minutes.

while not hoperessly out of the little chance to win the flag, and as a consequence the dormant pride of the rooter needs only a reason for revivifica-> double-headers on holidays, and the attendance is usually very good. In 1948 the Isthmian Baseball League had eight teams, but this season only four clubs are contending for the championship of the Canal Zone. A lack of material per-haps can be ascribed for only a quartet of clubs in the league.

The season started in December in or-der to include the Christmas holidays, chase and Hunt Association, forty-three and extends throughout the dry season, hunt clubs will assist in restoring racing

Pittsburg promoters now announce for the conversion of the convers day in the final round of the indoor national tennis championship in the Seventh upon college nines. The teams are made last New York horse show.

Joe Bowker went to Northboro, Mass., day rooter for clean baseball and prince of sporty-inclined fellows, William M.

up as follows: Personnel of Teams,

COLUMBIA TRIMS NAVY

Gymunstic Team Scores 26 Points to Middles 19.

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 27.-The gymnasts of Columbia University, New York, proved so much for the Midshipmen, and wor the dual contest at the Naval Academy to-night by the score of 26 to 19 points. The New Yorkers captured first place in three events, tied for first in another. LOCAL QUINTET IS DEFEATED and in one event they also took the points for second place.

The summary: Horizontal bar-Schoonmaker, Columbia, won: La Horizoniai car—Schoonmarer, Columbia, wor, La-mont, Navy, second; Kaestner, Columbia, third. Other contestants: Melotzer, Kiein, and Obler, Columbia; Waddington, Bates, and Russell, Navy, Tumbling-Kieffer, Navy, won; Lang, Columbia, second; McCannless, Columbia, third. Other con-testants: Miller, Columbia; Whiting and Falligant, Navy.

Navy, Parallel bars-Schoonmaker, Columbia, wou; Wad-fington, Navy, second; Lamont, Navy, third. Other contestants; Kaestner and Klein, Columbia; Wolfard

The judges were Messrs. C. C. Beuerlein and J. J. Lorett, of the Voerwarts Turnverein, and H. F. Mueller, Locust Point Turnverein, Success.

Quaker Athletes Show Prowess Be fore Large Crowd of Admiring Friends-Medals for Winners.

Before a large and enthusiastic crowd he thirteenth annual indoor meet of the Much to the surprise, three records vault by two inches, clearing the bar at As a rule, the oali tossers are charvalue by two inches, clearing the bar at acteristically diamond performers. They out a lot of ginger into their work. Then, beld by Percy Emmert at six feet three too the playare often inches, the old mark being held by Percy Emmert at six feet three

too the playare often inches, the old mark being held by Percy Emmert at six feet three

too the playare often inches, the old mark being held by Percy Emmert at six feet three

too the playare often inches, the old mark being held by Percy Emmert at six feet three

too the playare often inches, the old mark being held by Percy Emmert at six feet three

too the playare often inches, the old mark being held by Percy Emmert at six feet three too the playare often inches, and a score more of by John K. Stauffler, and a score more of by force.

The next record was smashed by Blair inch. He cleared the bar at five feet. The last mark was lowered by Lang-

Lawrence Baker won the silver medal In the intermediate class Langhorn Talriver. Three long rests, one of an hour and two of a half hour each, were had, besides numerous five-minute rests which besides numerous five-minute rests which for the home team, and it would seem nine points. In the junior class William complaint at the close as to unfair judg- members of the Hamline Walking Club while not hopelessly out of the race, and while not hopelessly out of the race, has ment to Save Tottering Game.

> Games are played every Sunday and August Belmont Makes Strong Appeal to Hunt Clubs to Aid in Rescuing the Sport.

In response to an appeal by August Belmont chairman of the Jockey Club. have a pretty strong team, and are second in the quartet.

The Isthmian Baseball League is invested and not of the "sports" was needed to be a pretty strong team, and and not of the "sports" was needed to be a pretty strong team, and are second in the quartet.

L. E. Free, F. L. Carter, F. S. Perry, J. abused McCarren's Irlends. Metz and the mayor. The fake Murphy yelled that for "Most of the intellectual men of the time are agreed that there are only two games worth playing—politics and the later than the property of the playing—politics and the later than the playing—politics and the playing—polit arrange plans for bettering the sport in this country, and to work with the Jockey Club to the end that the hunt clubs be Club to the end that the hunt clubs be they but served their country with the Zeal they have served their corporations, L. P. Harlow, E. B. Kimball, J. R.

Free Fight During Y. M. C. A. and Baltimore Contest.

Washington Team Goes Down in years ago?" This was the answer: Red-hot Basket-ball Battle-Fowler Resents Taunt of Spectator and Swings on Him-Final Score Is Eighteen to Fourteen.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Ancon, Canal Zone, Panama, Feb. 27.—
There is no lack of genuine baseball enthusiasm on that part of the Isthmus of Panama under American occupation. The rooter is as vigorous as he is in the States, and his likes and dislikes are in the States, and his likes and dislikes are in the states.

Ancon, Canal Zone, Panama, Feb. 27.—A free fight between and I regard this ship as the best water wagon I ever, traveled on."

A singous Salome dance was staged, a came as a climax to-night to a fast la Mary Garden and Maud Allen. The alternative for the control of this climax to-night to a fast la Mary Garden and Maud Allen. The alternative for the control of this climax to-night to a fast la Mary Garden and Weirdly fascinating harmonies of this climax to-night to a fast la Mary Garden and Weirdly fascinating harmonies of this climax to-night to a fast la Mary Garden and Weirdly fascinating harmonies of this climax to-night to a fast la Mary Garden and Weirdly fascinating harmonies of the washington Herial.

Baltimore, Feb. 27.—A free fight between a spectator and a player, and a general wagon I ever traveled on."

A sinuous Salome dance was staged, a came as a climax to-night to a fast la Mary Garden and Weirdly fascinating harmonies of the washington Herial.

Baltimore, Feb. 27.—A free fight between a spectator and a player, and a general wagon I ever traveled on."

A sinuous Salome dance was staged, a came as a climax to-night to a fast la Mary Garden and Weirdly fascinating harmonies of the washington Herial.

Wagon I ever traveled on."

A sinuous Salome dance was staged, a came as a climax to-night to a fast la Mary Garden and Weirdly fascinating harmonies of the washington Herial.

League were engaging in a contest on which rested the championship. The contest was fast and furious.

the close of the game, when time was the following: being held for an injured player. Mc-Ginnis, a Central rooter, who, with a number of others, were standing on the side lines, had been taunting the visitors about being beaten, and made a remark to Fowler, one of the Washington guards, which started the man from the Capital City to action.

Ginnis, and made a lunge, but the local man ducked the swing, which went harmlessly over his head, and Fowler slipped ous title of "Wayside sidelights and danto the floor.

This was the signal for a general rush from both players and spectators within brief and general in character, and re- geant-at-arms the former governor, who were broken and one tied. Carl Worch reach.

At least thirty were in less than a sec and pushing and shoving in a mad atdirectors and others could quell the dis-

The Central Y. M. C. A. won the game Brooks in the junior bar snap by one 18 to 14, which practically puts Washington out of the race.

	Line-up and	summary;
			Wash, Y. M. C. A.
3	Henderson	ferward	Jone
	Fry	forward	Crogha
	Kreiger	center	Hubbar
	Roberts	guard	Rege
ij	Frederick	guard	Fowle
	Goels-Croghan,	Hubbard (2)	, Fowler, Fry (3)
	Kreiger, Roberts.	Goals from	foul-Hubbard (3)
	Fry (5). Umpire-	-Mr. Ricketta.	Timers-Mr. Beck
٩	ett, Washington,	and Mr. O	ornelius, Baltimore
	First half score, 1	1 to 11.

STAR PITCHER FOR NAPS.

Henderson, of Pacific Coast, Signed by Cleveland.

for a three-to-four-hour walk through the country.

Mr. Foley expects that there will be more than 100 boys taking part in the first walk, which, he says, is a new arrangement at Central. These walks will be a regular feature of Foley's coaching.

Kaiser, Harry Norment, C. J. Brill, B.
L. Dulaney, J. M. Kenyon, W. D. Hoover.
A. E. Randall, H. C. Coburn, jr., former Secretary of War, former Secretary of State, and the Republican boss of this State."

"Well, I guess I'll duck him. He's too strong. Any man with a pull like his

UNIVERSITY CLUB

Continued from Page One.

your job, papa?" he inquired, shrewdiy. Club members and their guests at the "Mr. Pradt pondered long and earnestly dinner in addition to those at the guest French Steamer Sinks at Dock After part. Mr. Taft accepted the heritage of the "big stick," promised to increase the GOVERNOR IS BLAMED ranks of the "Ananias Club," to construe the Constitution as it should be construed, to wage war upon rich malefactors whose things.

"By wireless" came a clutter of aerograms and their replies. The London Times inquired of its local correspondent what was President Roosevelt's opinion of Senator Benjamin R. Tillman, and re- PLAN TO IMPEACH RUMORED elved the reply:

"President Roosevelt regards Senator Tillman as a very useful citizen, but—" Here the wireless broke down, for the nessage was too hot to be handled. The New York Sun sent the following

"During Mr. Roosevelt's trip to Africa we expect every lion to do its duty."
An inquiry was sent to President Wood-Wilson, of Princeton, asking: your high ball as popular as it was four

Then another flash message came Secretary of the Interior with a censor of the press, and has appointed Joseph tion laws' commission to overturn the Pulitzer as the first occupant of that existing election laws were late to-day came as a climax to-night to a fast la Mary Garden and Maud Allen. The albasket-ball game between the Central luring and weirdly fascinating harmonies. The Y. M. C. A., of this city, and the Washington Y. M. C. A., in the local symmasium.

"I am now sailing acress the high seas.

The two teams applied and active the contract of this rhythmic production was cheered to the echo. Then the donkey danced with the elephant, and the Pollula bird, which showed how all the elephants of The two teams running neck and neck nature worked against William Jennings for top honors in the Tricity Basket-ball Bryan in the recent campaign, quacked:

Austin Sends a Poem. The trouble started two minutes before a piece of alleged poetry. His gem was After March four We'll have no more Of Theodore.

There need be no crying, And that's no lying-It might have been Bryan.

made by Representative Charles E. Town-send, of Michigan. He was introduced as ger signals."

"Harrigan," were sung between courses. To-night it is rumored that if the sen-Those who sat at the speakers' table ators are brought back and an attempt imprised Charles D. Walcott, of the made to do business, the members of nithsonian Institution; Dr. Henry S. lower house will break the quorum in that Pritchett, of the Carnegie Foundation; Hennen Jennings, Louis A. Pradt, John loy Edson, Rev. G. B. Pierce, Gordon F.

H. Carter, of Montana; Representative Charles E. Townsend, of Michigan; Dr. David T. Day, and Justice Job Barnard, of the District of Columbia Supreme Seated at the Tables.

Those who were at the tables included: J. G. Bennett, Mr. Weaver, J. J. Ed-ion, jr.; G. O. Squier, R. D. Micou, R. S. Hume, Harry Hurtt, A. H. Bell, H. Up sprang a brother and announce R. Gower, S. T. Cameron, W. D. Mc-he was an "undesirable citizen." In the second half the Virginians rallies somewhat, and it looked as though they would reach the score set by their virals, but Georgetown was not going to allow this, and they gained new courage, and fought hard and fearless to which was the nearest place at which the canal could be crossed, and fought hard and fearless to whith the wast the search victory.

The property of the walk was been ever all there were used in the second half and the time of the canal could be were used in the second half and the second half and the second half and the second half and the function of the club was the nearest place at the plaudits of a host of admirers, which included among the line of the canal could be a pleasure by the course of the country property and the plaudits of a host of admirers, which included among the line of the canal could be a pleasure by the country property and the plaudits of a host of admirers, which included among the line of the canal could be a pleasure by the country property and the plaudits of a host of admirers, which included among the line of the canal country property and the plaudits of a host of admirers, which included among the line of the canal country property and the plaudits of a host of admirers, which included among the line of retallation reaches to would reach the conclude to walk back to Brunswick, which was the nearest place at the plaudits of a host of admirers, which included among the line of the canal country the control of the club was the cond half and the line of the canal country property and the plaudits of a host of admirers, which included among the line of retallation reaches the discussion of the club was the discussion of the club was the cond half and the line of the canal could be crossed, response to walk the canal could be crossed, the find the second half and the line of the canal could be crossed, the find the second half and the line of the canal could be crossed, the find the second half and the line of the canal could be crossed, the find the second h Coach Foley Plans Long Walks for His Athletes.

Announcement was made yesterday by Coach Foley, of Central, that the candidates for the hearby and the candidates for the ca dates for the baseball and track teams would turn out a week from Saturday for a three-to-four-hour walk through be a regular feature of Foley's coaching and should prove popular with the boys.

S. Bacon, W. M. Hill, Thomas Edwards, strong. Any man with a pull like his could send a newspaper editor or reporter up for less majeste in any one of the Cooper, T. Percy Myers, N. L. Burchell.

the Canal Zone as was the famous triumvir which promoted the national game in the States, and if there is anything overlooked by the Zone trio, no one has been boid enough to spring it on the baseball populace.

In the personnel of the teams are the names of men known on the professional diamonds in the States, while not a few will be remembered as having played upon college nines. The teams are made al association.

These five men were Westmoreland
Davis, representing the thirteen hunt clubs in Virginia; Spencer Harper, of New York

Frank For Defect on Defect Harvard.

Princeton N. J. Feb. 27—Princeton low-cred the swimming meet and the waterploog amen'th at wate Pennsy Fencers Go Down.

Pennsy Fencers Go Dow

hearts have grown hard as their muscles have grown soft, and to do various other Charged with Inducing Tennessee Solons to Bolt.

Thirteen Fleeing State Senators Are Located, but Refuse to Return in Time to Vote on Election Laws Measure-Missing Members Reported to Have Resignations Ready.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 27.-Eight of the thirteen members of the Tennessee sen-"The President is about to supplant the ate who disappeared to prevent a quorum when the senate meets to select an eleclocated in Hopkinsville, Ky. They declined to return to Tennessee until after Monday, the date set for the joint convocation of both houses, and if they adhere to their purpose they will defeat all election legislation at the present ses-

The action of the solons in running away has created a distinct sensation and is likely to result in serious trouble when they return. However, the boiters justify their position by declaring that the reform members of the legislature, in trying to force the proposed election legislation through the face of a veto by Gov. Patterson, are trying to pay a debt Alfred Austin broke in the game with piece of alleged poetry. His gem was laws the State-wide prohibition bills.

Attack the Governor, It is rumored to-night that the members who favor the proposed laws are endeavoring to find some way whereby they can impeach Gov. Patterson. They declare that the members of the senate The final address of the evening was who have left the State did so at the behest of the governor and former Gov.

Cox, and the situation is very peculiar. The missing members, before leaving Nashville, are reported to have placed Representative Townsend's speech was so that if they are arrested by the serferred lightly to "danger signals" as he is now a member of the senate, may file the resignations with the executive, and

Williams, John Hays Hammond, Frank Pierce, Henry E. Davis, Senator Robert
W. Taylor of Taylor of Parks ENLIVENS BANQUET

> Continued from Page One. minutes at 12 o'clock noon March 4 next, in testimony of the wisdom of Providence the irresistible resistance of our people, and the futility of misdirected enem of the peace, prosperity, good name, and well-being of the nation. The res was adopted with a roar of ayes. Up sprang a brother and announced tha Special to The Washington Herald.

Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 27.—The Cleveland club to-day purchased and signed Pitcher fam Donnally, L. S. Overman, G. D. Donnon. He was permitted finally to call Henderson, of the Stockton club of the nally, Alexander Britton, F. F. Oldham, the roll of the Anan'as Club, and various H. C. Yarrow, John Yarrow, H. H. Don-brethren, disguised as frayed and tatter-

"Who is that statesman trying to hide

A. A. Pisher, H. M. Jordan, Fred Du- 2,997 separate and independent jurisdic-WINL BUILD HOME

A. A. Fisher, H. M. Jordan, Fley
laney, C. G. Allen, P. C. Hawn, J. W.

Ianey, C. G. Allen, P. C. Hawn, J. W.

McKinley, R. J. Beall, jr., J. I. Weller,

L. H. Mattingly, C. M. Faree, R. J. F.

Allen, Myer Cohen, J. P. Fillebrown, H.

Coope, W. A. Leech, Frank P. Leech, S.

McCarren. They had a battle of words.

McCarren. They had a battle of words. signed to box at New Orleans March 2
Sam Langford and Jim Stewart are likely to meet at New York March 16.

Coope, W. A. Leech, Frank P. Leech, S. January, February, March, and April. In this country to its former high plane. Some months ago Mr. Belmont sent out Some mo Joe Wagner, of New York, offers to bet Motive Power and Machinery team not a circular to the hunt clubs of this counties, for the bigger kind of politics, for which they hungered the bigger kind of politics, for which they hungered the bigger kind of politics, for which they hungered they have in America.

Ancon, in Empire, and in Gorgona, the bound active Power and Machinery team not a circular to the hunt clubs of this counties, for which they hungered they have in America.

Some months ago are beinger kind of politics, for which they hungered they have in America.

E. E. Fore, F. L. Carter, F. S. Perry, J. abused McCarren's friends. Metz and the gave the people they hungered they have in America.

Some months ago are beinger kind of politics, for which they hungered they have in America.

E. Worker, F. L. Carter, F. S. Perry, J. abused McCarren's friends. Metz and the gave the people they have a circular to the hunt clubs of this counties. The fake Murphy yelled that for the intellectual men of t

Funny stunts fellowed in quick succession, and it was long after midnight when until the president choked it off.

O. H. Fowler, G. L. Baker, J. E. West, it not serve equally well for devotional J. E. Wilson, D. E. Fox, T. G. Stewart, purposes and bring the pulpit to the last New York horse show.

The committee got busy at once, but could not agree on some of the things which should be done, and minority and majority reports were issued, which majority reports were issued, which caused some confusion. Later, however, caused some confusion. Later, however, the document of the concluded he was presented.

Painted Tennessee's Glories.

Senator Robert L. Taylor, the poet of Tennessee, painted the glories of his native State in a brief and delightful series of anecdotes and verbal flowers.

When he concluded he was presented.

Painted Tennessee's Glories.

J. E. Wilson, D. E. Fox, T. G. Stewart.

Purposes and dring the purposes and dring the purposes and dring the purposes.

R. W. Parker, Capt. H. B. West, R. E. home? This bright thought has been actually the purposes and dring the purpo